

Juametta Terrell serves as Marketing Director of McKinney Legacy Neighborhood Association, specializing in managing the organization's social media, website, and events, ensuring ongoing outreach to residents of MLNA.

She is the owner of Art by Metta, LLC, an event production company that works with Non-profits to help fundraise. She founded the McKinney RNB Festival known to be held annually at TUPPS Brewery during Mother's Day weekend. Her passion for art, music, and commitment to community engagement drove her to collaborate with local artists, vendors, and sponsors, ensuring a diverse lineup that resonates with attendees. The festival quickly became an annual highlight, attracting families and music lovers alike making it a beloved fundraising event to support MLNA's mission.
